vote?

SENATOR DECAMP: Yes, what is the question?

SENATOR HABERMAN: The committee vote on the issue, how many voted yes and how many voted no? Was there a vote taken?

SENATOR DECAMP: There was a vote taken, it was unanimous.

SENATOR HABERMAN: How many?

SENATOR DECAMP: How many voted for him? All who were there.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Thank you, Mr. President.

SENATOR DECAMP: It was one of our singing votes.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Nelson, this gentleman is from your area.

SENATOR NELSON: Mr. President, are we referring to James Beltzer, Senior or Junior? Junior?

SENATOR DECAMP: Yes, that must be it.

SENATOR NELSON: He's a fine fellow, highly educated and very respected in the business and lawyers world. Saw him just last week. He was down here for a hearing.

SENATOR DECAMP: Another sighting within a week.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay, you've heard the discussion I'm sure. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 30 ayes, 0 nays on adoption of the confirmation report, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The confirmation is confirmed. We will move on to Final Reading. Will you please return to your seats. (Gavel.) Ladies and gentlemen, I must have your attention. We must move on to Final Reading. Please return to your seats. Those outside the Chamber, please return to the Chamber if you wish to vote on Final Reading. We are going to begin now.
