

Senator Hannibal...thank you, Senator Chronister, for reminding me who I'm dealing with. has said something else about what the amendment does. So what I'm going to ask Senator DeCamp to do for me, if he will, is tell me whether or not his amendment strikes the new language and substitute his. No, Speaker Nichol, from this amusing area in which I must function, I've been told that Senator DeCamp is finding out the answer to the question which I have posed, and now that he's gotten the answer I'm going to ask the question again.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Would you respond please, with the answer, Senator DeCamp.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well Senator Hannibal has now come over and told me that Senator DeCamp was...

SENATOR DECAMP: Okay, maybe you can explain exactly, precisely what the question is so I can give precisely the answer. I didn't know there was any misunderstanding.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: No, I don't think there is either. I had asked does your language strike what Senator Wesely is offering and insert yours?

SENATOR DECAMP: (Response inaudible.)

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Right, Senator DeCamp's amendment adds to it. So if it is considered that there are two issues here, and Senator DeCamp really believes in what he is doing, he ought to change his amendment or scrap it then offer a new one, which would substitute what he is offering for what Senator Wesely is doing. But if he does not consider what he is doing as important as what Senator Wesely is attempting, I think he is going to lose on this vote to override the Chair, and he can join me in being trampled into the dust by the nonthinking members of the Legislature who have been beguiled by Senator Withem and Senator Wesely.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Rod Johnson.

SENATOR R. JOHNSON: Mr. President, I call the question.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Question has been called. Do I see five hands? I do. The question is, shall debate cease? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk,
