

do reverse courses in the Legislature. I would rather bring this to the body's attention at this time, make the arguments, ask your choice, ask your vote and get the job done in a way that I think is reasonable and fair and if it turns out to be incorrect in the next two or three years, we can change it, but it is easier to make the change to allow full deduction against the premium tax than to go back after the fact and allow only 50 percent deduction against the premium tax. For that reason I would propose that LB 391 be returned from Final Reading to Select Final for purposes of the amendment.

PRESIDENT: The motion is to return the bill to Select File for a specific amendment. All those in favor vote yes, opposed vote no. Please record your vote if you wish to vote on the motion to return the bill to Select File for a specific amendment. The Chair will allow 15 seconds for the recording of your vote. Have you all voted? Record the vote, Mr. Clerk.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Mr. Speaker, we are ostensibly under call because we're on Final Reading.

PRESIDENT: Correct.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: I would like to have members check in and those that have left the floor be brought back and then I'll ask for a roll call vote.

PRESIDENT: Will members please put on their presence light, green light on the board, please. We are on Final Reading and, therefore, all members should be present. If any members are not present, please return to the Chamber. A roll call vote is anticipated. Senator Haberman. Senator Chambers. Senator Harris. Senators Labeledz and Lamb. Turn your light on, Senator Lynch, please, and, Senator Scofield, would you turn on your presence light. Two members are excused this morning at this time so we're looking for three more members, Senator Chambers, Senator Labeledz and Senator Lamb. We are on Final Reading and a roll call vote has been requested on an amendment before the house, a motion before the house. Senators Labeledz, Lamb and Chambers...oh, Senator Chambers is here. Senators Labeledz and Lamb. Senator Lamb. Here we are. We are all here now and the motion is the motion of Senator Vard Johnson to return LB 391 to Select File for a specific amendment that has been under
