

prove all these things? Who's going to hire the attorneys? Who's going to do all this work? The next one, any person who exercises control after notification of the expiration date with the intent to deprive the library, shall be guilty. How are you going to prove intent? If I keep those seven books, that I have from the Lincoln Library, a week longer than I'm supposed to they are going to come and arrest me, might even put me in handcuffs and take me to jail because how can I prove that I didn't do it intentionally? I might be doing it intentionally to see what would happen. I just say the bill is a frivolous bill. The amendments are frivolous. Let's just not adopt the amendments, don't pass the bill, and let's get on to more important things.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Marsh is next. But may I introduce some guests, please, in the south balcony are guests of Senator Vard Johnson, Senator Carol Pirsch and Senator Chizek. There are 112 eighth grade students from St. Pius, St. Leo in Omaha and sponsors. Welcome to the Legislature. Would you please stand and be recognized. It's a good day not to be in school, isn't it. Thank you for visiting the Legislature. Senator Marsh, please.

SENATOR MARSH: Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Question has been called. Do I see five hands? I do. The question is, shall debate cease? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. You are voting to cease debate on the Lundy amendment. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

ASSISTANT CLERK: 27 ayes, 4 nays on the motion to cease debate.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Debate is ceased. Senator Lundy, did you wish to close on your amendment, please.

SENATOR LUNDY: Mr. President and members, I think the body has had an opportunity to air the bill and its amendments. I would suggest to the body that there hasn't been any bill, that I know of, drafted and presented to this Legislature that has been perfect. That includes the bills that have been drafted by the senators in this body. I think there is always room to change a word here and there and nit pick something to death. That is what I see happening here this
