

SPEAKER NICHOL: ...there has been some...

SENATOR HIGGINS: I am willing to go with the body's vote.

SPEAKER NICHOL: All right, thank you a lot. The question is, shall debate cease? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. We are voting to cease debate. Voting to cease debate. If you care to vote, please do. If not, we will go on. Record, Mr. Clerk. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Do you want me to record the vote or do you want to entertain his call?

SPEAKER NICHOL: I would ask for the recording of the vote.

CLERK: 23 ayes, 4 nays to cease debate, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay, debate doesn't cease quite yet. Senator DeCamp. Let's see, then Senator Landis. Senator Landis. Senator Pirsch, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR PIRSCH: You had announced the aye votes and not the nay votes and you still left time for a call of the house, why is this any different?

SPEAKER NICHOL: I had to make up my mind whether...and I had asked him to record the vote and he was just slow in doing it and Senator Johnson came in and asked for a call of the house and...

SENATOR PIRSCH: But he had not even given the affirmative or the negative.

SPEAKER NICHOL: That's right. Would you like to challenge the Chair?

SENATOR PIRSCH: Yes.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay.

SENATOR PIRSCH: How many votes do we need for that? All right, forget it. I will just remember it.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay, you will remember it. All right, I'll bet you will. Okay, we are back on the debate.
