

get the tax laws changed so we can all operate under the same rules I'm not a bit afraid of competing with them. You know why? Because my son will get up in the middle of the night, he'll get up at one o'clock in the morning or two o'clock in the morning and go out, and so will I, and go out and stand in the slop and the snow and the mud and pull calves because he's got an interest in those calves. But if he's working for the corporation, the large, large corporation he's not going to go out and do it. He's not going to go out and do it. If he does he's going to get paid a heck of a lot more than he does now. That's one of the reasons I'm not afraid to compete with them. I'll compete with them on an even keel and beat the heck out of them and so will any other farm corporation or family farmer.

SPEAKER NICHOL: One minute.

SENATOR VICKERS: And, no, it's not on a small peanut-sized operation as Senator Sieck pointed out, but I want to have the rules be the same. If I'm going to play in the ball game I want to play under the same rules. I want them to play under my rules or else I want to have all those tax dodges that they've got and play under their rules only, quite frankly, I can't take advantage of them because I don't have the income to shelter. All I'm suggesting to those folks back of the glass doors representing the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce, and it really irritates me that the Lincoln and Omaha Chamber of Commerce tells me what is good for my industry, I don't try to tell them what's good for up and down the streets here in town except I buy things when I'm here, if they want to help me so damned much, then tell them to go back to Washington and get the federal government to change the tax codes. Then I'll vote for LR 16. Thank you, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Lundy.

SENATOR LUNDY: Mr. President, I call the question.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The question has been called. Do I see five hands? I do. The question is, shall debate cease? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. We're voting to cease debate. About to the end of our time anyway. If you wish to, please vote on the ceasing of debate. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.
