

believe it is unenforceable. It says, not within reach. Well, now you have a cooler and you have maybe some Budweiser or Falstaff in that cooler and you're going down the highway in a motor home and it is sitting behind the driver. He can reach around and get one or you have one in the refrigerator. He can go back, have somebody get him one, that's accessible. You have somebody in the back seat of a car that has a six pack and it's sitting on the floor of the car and it's split front seat. He can reach back there and pick up one. So how in the heck are you going to prove or going to show that it was not accessible. Because it is accessible and it is open. It should be changed. It's a word that you go to court on that and you're going to have the doggonedest fight you ever saw in your life and maybe to prove my point, I don't know where Senator Beutler stands on this bill, but, Senator Beutler, may I ask you a question? Maybe you'll just blow me out of the saddle though when I ask you.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Beutler, would you respond, please.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Senator Beutler, in your opinion, would it be hard in a court of law to prove what accessible is? Did you hear when I read it what it says?

SENATOR BEUTLER: Senator Haberman, I'm sorry, but I was busy with other matters and I didn't even...I haven't even heard your comments. Senator Haberman, I don't have an opinion. I just haven't looked at it enough.

SENATOR HABERMAN: May I ask Senator Hoagland the same question?

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Hoagland, would you respond, please.

SENATOR HOAGLAND: I am a co-sponsor of this bill, Senator Haberman, and I've just now had an opportunity to read the committee amendments and I agree that there may be a problem with that term "accessible" and I would think the way to resolve that would be to request an Attorney General's Opinion, and if the Attorney General indicates there is a problem with that term, why then we could come up with more precise language.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Would it be all right with you as a
