

introducer of the bill to hold this until we get the opinion? You see what happened is we gutted the whole bill and the amendments change the whole bill. Senator Hefner said that it did this so I am going to ask, Senator Hefner, would you agree to holding this until we get an Attorney General's Opinion to see if this is a problem, and if it isn't a problem, I'll support the bill.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Hefner, would you respond, please.

SENATOR HEFNER: Senator Haberman, I see no reason to hold up the bill. We can advance the bill and then we'll request an Attorney General's Opinion and I'm sure it will be here when we debate it on Select File. How would that be?

SENATOR HABERMAN: Well, I can see why you want to advance it to Select File...

SPEAKER NICHOL: Excuse me, Senator Haberman...

SENATOR HABERMAN: ...but I'll agree with that.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Excuse me, it's really Senator Sieck's bill. Maybe perhaps you should be asking him the question.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Okay, Senator Sieck.

SENATOR SIECK: Senator Haberman, I've got an amendment on the bill that I think will correct that and that is what I am trying to introduce. There is an amendment on the amendment.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay, your time is up anyway and you're the next speaker, Senator Sieck, so...and I understand you have an amendment so, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Sieck would move to amend the committee amendments and Senator Sieck's amendment is on page 1258 of the Journal.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Now, Senator Sieck.

SENATOR SIECK: Mr. President, members of the body, this amendment to the Standing Committee amendments adds the words "possess" after the word "knowingly" in line 3. The way the Standing Committee amendments presently read, "No
