

this too.

SPEAKER NICHOL: You do care then.

SENATOR HIGGINS: When I saw it got up to 24, I thought, Lord, why put everybody through that if we only need one more vote. I really don't care. All I want to do is see what the body wants to do.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Yes, we are going under call of the house. Would you please record your presence, and those outside the body, please return to the body and record your presence. We turned off the lights there. Look again to see if your green light is on because we turned them off there momentarily. Senator Beutler, would you turn on yours, please. Thank you. Senator Vickers. Senator Scofield. Call in votes has been authorized. We are voting on the adoption of the Higgins amendment. Senator Hefner, would you punch your green button, please. Thank you.

CLERK: Senator Vickers voting yes.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 6 nays, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The call is raised and the amendment is adopted. Anything else, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Yes, sir. Mr. President, the next amendment I have to the bill, Senator Landis, you had an amendment, Senator, on 888 you want to withdraw.

SPEAKER NICHOL: It is withdrawn.

CLERK: Mr. President, the next amendment I have is by Senators DeCamp, Labeledz, Hartnett, Hannibal and Lundy. It is found on page 900 of the Journal.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator DeCamp.

SENATOR DECAMP: Mr. President, I stated that there were a series of negotiations, discussions, meetings between the insurance companies who, of course, had one attitude on the bill, primarily opposition, and between trial attorneys and members of the Legislature. One of the key individuals in
