

simply want to ignore it for another period of time. I strongly oppose the Scofield amendment.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Vard Johnson is next. However, may I introduce some students in the north balcony, guests of Senator Pappas. They are 10 students from Lincoln County, District #44 at North Platte, Nebraska, and their teacher. Would you please stand. Thank you for visiting the Legislature today. Senator Vard Johnson.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: I'd like to call the question.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The question is, shall debate cease? All those in favor raise their...Senator Lamb, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR LAMB: We have not had sufficient debate on this motion.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Let's see, we've had one, two, three, four, four up to now. We've had one in favor of the motion and three in opposition. We have three names left and if I judged correctly, there are two more that would be in opposition to the motion and one more in favor of it. So it's hard to get it equal. I'm going to call the question and see what happens. Do I see five hands? I do. The question is, shall debate cease? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted that wish to on ceasing debate?

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Mr. Speaker, I guess it was my calling the question. I would like to have a call of the house, please, on ceasing debate.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Vard.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Call of the house, please.

SPEAKER NICHOL: A call of the house has been called. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 17 ayes, 0 nays to cease debate, or to go under call, Mr. President. Excuse me.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The house is under call. Please return to
