

our seats. Okay? Thank you for your point. Senator Higgins, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR HIGGINS: Mr. Speaker, I would just like to make a suggestion.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Do you have a point of personal privilege? Is that the point? We have nothing before us.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Well, I am speaking to Senator Carsten.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Well, do you wish to make a point?

SENATOR HIGGINS: And to your point of staying in your chair during Final Reading.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Is that okay?

SPEAKER NICHOL: Yes.

SENATOR HIGGINS: I would just like to ask if the body could request a study or a bid on finding out what it would cost for a senator to call from one phone to another, here in the Chamber, which would eliminate a lot of walking around. That's all. I just wanted to consider that.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Just as a suggestion, but I don't think we can take the time to settle the question right at the moment.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Oh, I didn't want to do it now.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Oh, okay. Fine, thank you. Okay. Senator Scofield, did you wish to close on the return of your...okay. The question is the return of the bill for a specific amendment. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Senator Scofield, three are excused.

SENATOR SCOFIELD: Mr. Speaker, in the interest of time, I have a second amendment which is hardship language which Senator Landis suggested we ought to consider awhile back. To save the body time on this issue, why don't we go ahead and I'll try and incorporate this amendment into that one. Let's just move on. I think there is another amendment up
