

says unless you have got a better idea, it is going to come from sales tax. Think about it. How many of you have tried an idea here, but unless there is the pressure from one direction or another, either for you or against you, you can't make it happen. Senator Sieck and Senator Remmers, I really would ask your vote on this because I think that is the only way you are going to get honest, objective, fair treatment of your alternative financing which, by the way, I would rather have an alternative than sales tax and I think it can be done but I will wager you, I will wager you it won't happen unless you have got the pressure. This is the pressure.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Labeledz. Oh, excuse me, that was the close? That was the opening. Okay, there are no other lights on so the question is the adoption of the DeCamp amendment. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 29 ayes, 6 nays on adoption of the amendment, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator DeCamp.

SENATOR DECAMP: Now I am suspicious.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Just move the bill.

SENATOR DECAMP: Yeah, but I am beginning to worry about it now.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The motion is to return the bill. All those in favor say aye. Opposed nay. It is returned. May I introduce some guests please in the south balcony. Senator Chronister has some guests from West Point, Nebraska. They are 34 students with their teacher. Would you please stand and be recognized. Thank you. Do you have anything else on the bill, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Yes, sir, one item, but right before that if I might, I have an Attorney General's opinion to Senator Vickers on 457. Enrollment and Review reports 333, 333A, and 632 all to Select File. (See pages 1501-04 of the Legislative Journal.)

Mr. President, Senator Vickers, sorry, Senator Remmers would
