

other words, it legislates by reference to I think something you can't necessarily do. You have got to do it just a little more sophisticated than I think that does it. So I am wondering if we waited for how many days of debate so that the sponsors could put on two amendments to wipe out their own bill. I am going to vote for the amendment. I told you where I am coming from. But don't cry then later if you see that it has got a problem or two in the amendments. I think you ought to read the next one and read this one and, gosh, I would have hoped we could have voted on the bill this morning because I can see it is...I am not sure it is getting any stronger as we go.

PRESIDENT: Senator Nelson.

SENATOR NELSON: Mr. Speaker, I will make this real brief. I also had a question of UPS drivers and actually I hated to even bring it up or I thought that's just another can of worms and that has been pointed out to me on their frequent stops and that is just another question in my mind. Thanks.

PRESIDENT: We had a group of students who did not get introduced. They were from Senator Vard Johnson's district from St. Bernard's in Omaha but the matter will appear in the record. The Chair recognizes Senator Morehead. Senator Marsh.

SENATOR MARSH: I move the previous question.

PRESIDENT: The question has been asked for. I do see five hands and I will put it to you. The question is, shall the debate cease? All those in favor vote yes, opposed vote no. The motion is to cease debate. Please record your vote. Have you all voted? Have you all voted on the motion to cease debate? Please record your vote. Please record your vote if you wish to vote on the motion. The Clerk will record.

ASSISTANT CLERK: 25 ayes, 9 nays to cease debate, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The motion prevails. Senator Hefner, you may close.

SENATOR HEFNER: Mr. President and members of the body, I will try to answer a few questions. Senator Vickers, I
