LB 401
LR 32

at least 90 percent of all of the major universities in this country use. So for those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I would ask all of you to vote in favor of LR 32. Thank you.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Haberman and Hefner would move to indefinitely postpone the resolution. That would lay it over unless the proponents agree to take it up at this time.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Hoagland.

SENATOR HOAGLAND: I have no objection to its being laid over for one day, Mr. Speaker.

SENATOR HABERMAN: I object.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay, Senator Haberman objects. Senator Hoagland, do you wish to lay it over?

SENATOR HOAGLAND: Yes. It's my understanding, Mr. Speaker, it will be laid over for one day and we would, under the rules, and we would consent to that.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Yes, yes, okay. That's the way it is then. It will be laid over one day. We'll take it up on General File tomorrow morning. Okay. I think we have...so that's that. Senator Landis, I believe that we have time to take up your bill.

SENATOR LANDIS: Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

SPEAKER NICHOL: It is LB 401. 401.

CLERK: Mr. President, 401, offered by Senators Landis and Wesely. (Read title.) The bill was first read on January 18, referred to the Government Committee for hearing, advanced to General File. I have no amendments to the bill.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Landis.

SENATOR LANDIS: Pardon me, Mr. Speaker, now I guess I'm ready to go. I wanted to make sure I get this in by noon. LB 401 is whistle-blower legislation. The reason for the
