

omissions while processing this information. So, because of that, we added a section that exempts county treasurers and their employees from any civil liability that might come about. The fourth point also then is because of the very nature of this process and entering into an area where we will, and my intent is that an appropriate public relations campaign is addressed at the county level for this new mandate, that the operative date be set back to January 1, 1986. I think this may be important too to meet the fiscal roll over and the much larger numbers of people who register still in that January period, even though we have that rotating period. So those are the Select File amendments. I would like to move their adoption.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Senator Nichol. Senator Nichol, do you wish to speak, sir?

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Conway, I'd have a question please. We speak of financial responsibility now. Of course, one way is insurance, the other is a bond, to show financial responsibility. How big a bond are we talking about?

SENATOR CONWAY: I do not have that information in front of me at this point. I suspect that it would meet the standard minimums that are already in place, which would probably be equivalent to what our current minimum standards are in insurance.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay, what is the third way? Is that cash?

SENATOR CONWAY: A certificate of deposit.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Certificate of deposit?

SENATOR CONWAY: Yes.

SPEAKER NICHOL: How much certificate of deposit do I need?

SENATOR CONWAY: Again, I don't know, but I would assume it would be the same as our minimum level.

SPEAKER NICHOL: $5,000, $10,000, something like that.

SENATOR CONWAY: Yes, whatever the minimums are.

SPEAKER NICHOL: And if I show that then I don't need to
