

the general fund.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Seventy-five percent is because that is what goes to the state.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Thirty seconds.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And what percentage of the entire state budget will the amount of money be that would be realized from this bill? One percent, or...it wouldn't even be one percent, would it?

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: I'm going to suggest it is less than one-tenth of one percent.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So, if we didn't get it, it wouldn't hurt the state's budget at all in the broad sweep of things as we view them.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: When you watch your nickels and your dimes, your dollars follow.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: (Laughter.)

SENATOR BEUTLER: Senator Hall.

SENATOR HALL: Question.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Question has been called. Do I see five hands? I do. The question is, shall debate cease? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Please vote. Please vote. The motion is ceasing debate on the Haberman amendment to the committee amendments. Voting aye, Pat. Please vote, so we can get rolling. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 0 nays to cease debate, Mr. President.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Debate is ceased. Senator Haberman.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Shame on you, Senator Johnson, shame, shame. You said...I think you said that the counties wouldn't take the 50 percent. Well, they will, of course. Senator Chambers, we've had this law for over 20 years. I believe you've been here 15 and you haven't tried to change it. So I don't think you should, all of a sudden, come unglued because they are having a small increase. As far as
