

there will be two more weeks worth of dialogue. At the conclusion of that time, then we will do it on Select File, whatever the body wants to do. But in the meantime, I kid you not, the committee amendments which are the content of this bill, represent the best work product of the Revenue Committee. They are agreed to by the Governor, by the Department of Revenue. They are deemed to be that method of taxation of banks to day most likely to succeed and most likely to deal with the problem that is a very serious problem, specifically banks are not paying taxes. That is a fairly significant problem. So I do ask your indulgence and please advance the bill to Select File.

SPEAKER NICHOL: You have heard the closing. The question is the advancement of the bill. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. A record vote has been called for. Have you all voted? Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: (Read the record vote as found on pages 1892-93 of the Legislative Journal.) 28 ayes, 17 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to advance the bill.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The bill is advanced. We will move on to Select File. Would you like to read something, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Yes, sir. Mr. President, I have an Attorney General's Opinion addressed to Senator Sieck, and another to Senator Warner. Those will both be inserted in the Journal. (See pages 1893-95 of the Legislative Journal.)

Senator DeCamp has amendments to LB 717 to be printed. (See page 1896 of the Legislative Journal.)

SPEAKER NICHOL: We'll begin with 404.

CLERK: Mr. President, the E & R amendments were adopted by the Legislature on April 17. Mr. President, I now have a series of amendments. There was also an amendment on that date adopted by Senator Conway. I now have pending, Mr. President, the first amendment is by Senator DeCamp. Senator DeCamp's amendment is on page 1565 of the Journal.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator DeCamp.

SENATOR DECAMP: Mr. President, I'm going to withdraw that. In fact, I've got another amendment that synthesizes a
