that portion too. So I oppose the motion to kill. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Senator Warner, you may close. Senator Schmit, has one more. Senator Wesely.

SENATOR WESELY: I move to recess until one-thirty.

PRESIDENT: Motion is to recess until one-thirty. All those in favor say aye. Opposed no. Motion carried. We are recessed until 1:30 p.m.

RECESS

SENATOR MARSH PRESIDING

SENATOR MARSH: Roll call, please. Legislators, please come to the Legislative Chamber. The time is 1:35 p.m. Please check in at the Legislative Chamber. There are 13 legislators who have checked in. Will the remainder of the legislators please come to the Legislative Chamber. Have you all checked in? The Clerk will record.

CLERK: There is a quorum present, Madam President.

SENATOR MARSH: We are ready to return to LB 553. The next speaker is Senator Wesely. Please, Clerk will read some things into the record.

CLERK: Madam President, Senator Lowell Johnson and others would like to print amendments to LB 614, Senator Landis to 401. (See pages 2085-86 of the Legislative Journal.)

Madam President, when we left 553 there was pending a motion by Senator Warner to indefinitely postpone the bill.

SENATOR MARSH: Senator Warner.

SENATOR WARNER: Mr. President, I was temporarily going to withdraw the motion to indefinitely postpone. I understood there was an amendment pending to reconsider the Haberman amendment earlier, which I would be...I would withdraw the amendment at this point to allow for that to be considered, if it is in order.
