

you'd like to recognize that you have 30 visitors in the balcony, fourth graders from St. Joseph's School in York, Nebraska and their teacher. We have eight kindergarten through sixth graders who are in Senator Schmit's district from West Grove Cass County School in Ashland, Nebraska, accompanied by their teacher. In Senator Goodrich's district there are 58 students from St. Thomas Moore in Omaha, accompanied by their chaperone. Would you please welcome them to the Legislative Chamber. Senator Haberman.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, Senator Sieck, would you ask (sic) a question please.

SENATOR SIECK: Yes.

SENATOR HABERMAN: What did the highway department tell you that they objected to in the amendment, please?

SENATOR SIECK: The commercial permit.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Will you show me in the bill where it opens it up to commercial?

SENATOR SIECK: Well, you said for hire. If you take somebody...a farmer wants to hire somebody you allow him to...

SENATOR HABERMAN: Will you show me...I'll give you time before the debate is over, will you show me where that is in the bill.

SENATOR SIECK: I can't show you because I just heard you say that.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Oh, no, you didn't hear me say that. I'm sorry. I did not say that.

SENATOR MARSH: If you wish to ask a question, but not for bickering back and forth, Senator Haberman.

SENATOR HABERMAN: All right, thank you. Members of the body, first of all, this is LB 122 which was advanced from the committee with one no vote, which is Senator Beyer's, who now supports LB 122. I do not remember saying anything about opening it up to commercial trucks because I don't
