

Chamber, please look up to the green board and record your presence. Record your presence on the board. Members of the Legislature throughout the building, the house comes under call and your presence is requested in the Legislature. Nine members are excused at the present time. Senator Harris, would you put on your green light please. Senator Barrett, Senator Baack, Senator Lamb, Senator Landis, Senator Warner, Senator Wesely. The house is under call. Members throughout the building, please come to the Chamber and indicate your presence. We are having a check now. Please record your presence. Senator Landis, Senator Wesely, Senator Hefner, Senator Goodrich. The house is under call. Members throughout the Capitol Building, please return to the Legislative Chamber. Senator Goodrich, record your presence. Senator Landis, and Senator Hefner. Senator Johnson, what do you suggest?

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Well, you know, that is pretty hard to get 25 votes when you have only got 38 showing on the board but, you know, what else can a fellow do but ask good folk to vote yes, so I guess we start with a roll call vote, Mr. Speaker, and maybe Senator Hefner will appear.

PRESIDENT: Very well. Meanwhile, Senator Hefner and Senator Landis, please be informed that the house is under call and your presence is required. We will have a roll call vote. If you will please maintain silence (gavel) so that the Clerk may hear your vote, record the vote aye or nay on the Johnson amendment.

CLERK: (Roll call vote taken. See page 2185 of the Legislative Journal.) 21 ayes, 17 nays, Mr. President, on the amendment.

PRESIDENT: The motion fails. The call of the house is raised. The call of the house is raised. All right, we are back to the bare bill again. Is there anything further on the bill?

CLERK: I have nothing further on the bill, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Senator Barrett, we are ready to advance the bill if you are interested. Senator Barrett moves that LB 333 be advanced from General File to Enrollment and Review for review which is debatable. Is there discussion? If not, the motion is to advance the bill. All those in
