

SENATOR BEUTLER: Mr. President, point of order.

PRESIDENT: Yes. Yes.

SENATOR BEUTLER: First of all, the conversation was inappropriate. The question...the Clerk should have responded to the question, but I am not objecting to the clarification. But I am objecting to the fact that I think Senator Smith was left with a misimpression. Her last question was, then Section 7 wasn't stricken and there was no answer. Let the record show that the answer to that is, yes, Section 7 is stricken.

PRESIDENT: Your statement is allowed as further clarification. The debate is closed and the motion is the Lamb amendment to the committee amendment...not the committee amendment, Lamb amendment to the Beutler amendment. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Voting on the Lamb amendment to the Beutler amendment. Please record your vote. Have you all voted? Have you all voted? Senator Beutler.

SENATOR BEUTLER: I ask for a call of the house and a roll call vote.

PRESIDENT: Call of the house has been requested. The question is, shall the house come under call? All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. The Clerk will record.

CLERK: 9 ayes, 0 nays to go under call.

PRESIDENT: The motion prevails. The house is under call. All members of the Legislature please turn on your presence button, your green light, please. Look up to the front. Senator Warner, please. All members outside the Legislative Chamber, please return, the house is under call. Senator Beutler, record your presence, please. Senator Remmers and Landis. Someone turn on Senator Landis's presence button. The house is under call. Members should be in your seats under the rules. Is Senator Goodrich around? Senator Marsh. Senator DeCamp. Senator Goodrich. Senator Rod Johnson. Senator Ron Withem. Goodrich, DeCamp, Withem. Senator Nichol. Eight members are excused at the present time. Senator Goodrich. Senator Goodrich. Senator DeCamp is here. Senator Withem. Here he is. Senator Goodrich is the only one absent. Is the Sergeant able to find out where
