SPEAKER NICHOL: Yes, Mr. President and members of the Legislature, rather than beginning on Senator Sieck's important bill now, I think we will wait till after lunch. But I understand that Senator Schmit is in pretty good shape and headed back home for a little rest for the rest of the day and I think getting along fairly well. I understand it was a one-car accident but he did not go to sleep. I asked about that. Oh, a seat belt? Gee, I didn't think to ask about that. Senator Morehead was looking into that. But things seem to be getting along pretty well. Therefore...(interruption).

PRESIDENT: ...pass over LR 35.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Yes. And one thing I wanted to visit with you about. We are getting behind in Final Reading. We have about four and a half hours worth tomorrow. So for one day only, I hope, I am asking that you come at eight o'clock tomorrow morning to start Final Reading so that I know you are all happy about that. Senator Pirsch, I hear a groan from you. But we do need to catch up on some of our Final Reading and with four and a half hour's worth it should help that situation somewhat. Okay. I would suggest that we adjourn until one-thirty, Mr. President. Recess.

PRESIDENT: The Speaker has a motion to Recess until one-thirty. All those in favor say aye. Opposed no. The motion carried. We are Recessed until 1:30 p.m.

RECESS

SENATOR DECAMP PRESIDING

SENATOR DECAMP: Okay, record your presence. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, there is a quorum.

SENATOR DECAMP: Okay. Senator Chizek should be here but he is not, but he is on his way. The reason he should be here is there are 80, count them up there, 80 fourth graders from Willa Cather Elementary School in Omaha, Nebraska and their teacher, and they are in the south balcony. As I say, they are from Senator Chizek's district and Senator Chizek is on
