

SENATOR HIGGINS: ...but the passenger could also.

SENATOR SIECK: That is illegal then.

SENATOR HIGGINS: I mean, the driver isn't drunk, so they, you know, if they gave them a test, it wouldn't show that they were drunk.

SENATOR SIECK: But if he has got an open container and it is available to the driver, he is subject to arrest.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Well, then what you are saying is when they come down to Nebraska for the Big Red football games on Saturday, there will be no more recreational vehicles, there will be no more station wagons, there will be nobody doing any drinking in a car even though they specifically brought along someone like my husband...

SPEAKER NICHOL: Time is up.

SENATOR HIGGINS: ...who does not drink, to do the driving.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Time is up.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Is that the way it is going to be?

SENATOR SIECK: That's right. Out on the highway...(interruption).

SENATOR HIGGINS: Okay, thank you, Senator, my time is up. I guess so is yours on this.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator DeCamp.

SENATOR DECAMP: Yes. Mr. President, just so I understand the bill further. There are a lot of recreational vehicles and I know, I am using one example and I will pick a couple more, but one example is on Saturday for the football games, I know they all park out there and sometimes, you know, you maybe go in and eat your hamburger and maybe even drink a toddy also, that is going to be illegal too now, as I understand it. Maybe it is already. Hmmm. Anyway, okay, that is already illegal. We don't have to worry about that one. We are already all violating the law. Okay. What about the motor recreational vehicles in all the public parks? Even if they were parked sitting there for the
