

SENATOR HIGGINS: Well, he is. He is driving. What you are actually saying here is...

SENATOR SIECK: Because it is illegal to drive on the public highways...

SENATOR HIGGINS: If it is illegal to drink in your own recreational vehicle and you have got somebody driving that doesn't drink, the next step is, you won't be able to drink in your own home. Isn't that correct?

SENATOR SIECK: No.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Because if you own your vehicle...

SENATOR SIECK: No.

SENATOR HIGGINS: ...doesn't the law of privacy go as far as your vehicle?

SENATOR SIECK: That isn't a public highway.

SENATOR HIGGINS: No, it isn't a public highway, but still if I am in my own car and my husband is driving...

SENATOR SIECK: The driver...

SENATOR HIGGINS: ...and several people are going to the football game on Saturday, they are just, that's it. My husband is going to get arrested for something he didn't do. Is that justice?

SENATOR SIECK: Yes, because he is responsible for anything...

SENATOR HIGGINS: Why is he responsible for all those other people's acts?

SENATOR SIECK: Because they were drinking.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Well, what if he didn't know it?

SPEAKER NICHOL: Time is up.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Senator Sieck, I really wanted to vote for your bill but I don't know now.
