

agreement to strike the last sentence, that was precisely what was done. I read into the record what had been agreed on. I want to make sure the same thing is done this morning when we do this again. I take offense at the cheap shot, and I shall return it at the appropriate time in the appropriate way.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Higgins.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Thank you, Mr. President. Senator Wesely, you have said this was the Barrett and Wesely and somebody else and somebody else's amendment. And you had reached an agreement, but what is...you say there is just one word you changed in it?

SENATOR WESELY: One word different from the Landis-Barrett amendment which was on Select File which was not adopted or considered.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Well, what...for a vote to return it, somewhat like Senator DeCamp, I want to know what I am voting to return it for.

SENATOR WESELY: Well, the one word difference is that instead of "responsibility" you say "responsibly." There was just a drafting error.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Instead of saying "responsibility" you say "responsibly"?

SENATOR WESELY: If you'd like, I'll go ahead and read this statement of intent. That will explain it for you, Marge.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Well...

SENATOR WESELY: I think it would be better if I just read this statement of intent, Mr. Speaker. Why don't you let me...

SPEAKER NICHOL: Excuse me, Senator Higgins. Why don't we have him do that, then you'll know what you are returning the bill for because it will have to be read anyway. We just as well do it now so that the members...

SENATOR HIGGINS: I only asked the question because I want to know what I'm doing, because I've been told before that
