

SENATOR GOLL: How do I know that?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes.

SENATOR GOLL: Well, because I just do. I've known that for a long time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, there was a time when you didn't know it.

SENATOR GOLL: There was?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes, and then there came a point at which you acquired this knowledge. Do you remember roughly at which point you acquired this knowledge?

SENATOR GOLL: Probably acquired this knowledge back in the middle '60s.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, and what activities were you engaged in that brought you...?

SENATOR GOLL: As a matter of fact, Senator Chambers, I'm sorry to interrupt...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: That's all right.

SENATOR GOLL: ...I really think I became aware of this back in the middle '50s and that may have been before your time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: All right. Now what were you doing at that time that brought you into such close proximity with this activity that you knew...?

SENATOR GOLL: We had an opportunity during those early years to install seat belts.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And what was your occupation at that time?

SENATOR GOLL: I was an automobile dealer, Ford, Lincoln, Mercury. I want to make sure you understand that, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Are you still an automobile dealer?
