

the system will insure that it is.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Thank you.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Lowell Johnson.

SENATOR L. JOHNSON: Mr. Speaker, and members of the Legislature, Senator DeCamp has referred to the FDIC and its new regulations and rules pertaining to banks. I would also like to add to the record that savings and loans have been engaged in the same practices for deposits of state money to those that desire it. The FSLIC, which is the insuring agency for savings and loans, is in the process now of publishing similar regulations in the Federal Register. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Beutler, did you wish to speak again?

SENATOR BEUTLER: (Response inaudible.)

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay. We are on the advancement of the bill and Senator Schmit had made the motion to readvance the bill. All those in favor say aye. Opposed nay. It is advanced. Anything else on the bill, Mr. Clerk? Excuse me, Mr. Clerk, before you do, while the Legislature is in session and capable of transacting business, I propose to sign, and do sign LB 721, LB 126, LB 406 and LB 633. Now, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, your Committee on Judiciary reports LB 600 to General File with committee amendments attached. (See pages 2372-74 of the Legislative Journal.)

I have a note from the Revenue Committee noting an Executive Session at two-thirty in the lounge today, Executive Session of the Revenue Committee at two-thirty in the lounge today. That is all that I have, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Before we recess, let me remind you we will be coming back and we should plan to stay about five-thirty or so this afternoon to continue with the handling of appropriation bills. We are a little bit behind again. But I'm sure you will appreciate making that up. Senator Sieck, would you like to recess us until one-thirty, please.
