SENATOR LABEDZ: Thank you.

SENATOR MOREHEAD: Senator Vickers.

SENATOR VICKERS: I'd just like to ask how many votes it is going to take to reconsider, 25?

SENATOR MOREHEAD: Affirmative, 25 votes for reconsideration of the motion to adjourn.

SENATOR VICKERS: I'd also like to ask the Chair if the adoption of the amendment, following the last motion to adjourn, was not...could not be construed as conducting business? So there has been some business conducted since the last motion to adjourn, it would seem to me.

SENATOR MOREHEAD: Your point is well taken, Senator Vickers. After a slight consideration of the whole issue up here, without question we will now have before us a motion to adjourn which is not debatable and there has been a request for a machine vote. The motion is to adjourn. Senator Beutler.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Would you like me to withdraw my motion to reconsider adjournment?

SENATOR MOREHEAD: Yes.

SENATOR BEUTLER: I will do so then.

SENATOR MOREHEAD: Thank you, Senator Beutler. So now you are renewing your motion to adjourn?

SENATOR BEUTLER: Yes.

SENATOR MOREHEAD: Machine...motion to adjourn is before us. Machine vote is requested. Have you all voted? Record. Record, Mr. Clerk. I would like to remind you it is 8:00 a.m., Monday morning; 8:00 a.m. and not nine. Eight o'clock Monday morning. The Speaker said eight. I'm sorry. The Speaker called me and told me 8:00 a.m., so...we are...Senator Withem, did you want to be recognized? We are adjourned, 8:00 a.m., Monday morning. Could I have everyone's attention. Terri has just come down the hall and she says nine, so I don't know where the call came from. Right, Terri? Nine o'clock, Monday morning, for those who
