

amendment. There is other valuable information that I think the body should have and I think there has only been one speaker on this motion.

SENATOR BARRETT: We only have one other light on, Senator Beutler. Now we have two. Thank you, sir. Let me put it to a vote. I did see the five hands. Let's have a quick vote on ceasing debate.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Wait a minute. Senator...oh, I will wait and see if you will recognize me.

SENATOR BARRETT: Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. Senator Barrett, fair is fair. Now Senator DeCamp didn't state the whole thing that happened. I had several amendments up there that I could have spent a good amount of time talking on, ten minutes to open and at least five to close. In exchange for taking this motion we are considering now above his suspend the rules motion, I withdrew all those motions, so I could have taken more time. We were going to discuss the issue. Now Senator Barrett can call the question because neither Senator Beutler or I alone or together will go up there and drag him out of that Chair before he can call the question and you all can vote to cease debate. But there won't be any kind of agreements like this again where our agreement is based on the idea that we will discuss it at this point. So do what you want to do, but I don't think it is appropriate in terms of what had been talked about, even agreed to and admitted on the floor by Senator DeCamp.

SENATOR BARRETT: The Chair recognizes Senator Wesely.

SENATOR WESELY: I will withdraw that motion to call the question.

SENATOR BARRETT: Thank you, Senator Wesely. The next speaker is Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I will just close. I am not going to speak on the issue again.

SENATOR BARRETT: We move to Senator Beutler then.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Mr. Speaker and members of the
