

and you can understand some of them. Now unless we can find a bunch of money somewhere we either have to have a tax increase or we're going to have to go with this route. I do not think you can actually take those exclusions out of there because someone is going to have to take care of the mentally retarded, the handicapped, the deaf and that sort of thing. There is no way you're going to be able to address that problem. Those of us who can take care of ourselves are going to have to make the adjustments. As has been pointed out here many times, we can do it. We don't like to. It's painful. Those of you who have not been here very long may not know, but I have always been a strong supporter of all of these programs. I have overridden most of the vetoes of spending bills over the years. Last year in itself I went for most of the overrides. I think we're in a different situation and I think you'll want to point out one more thing, since the time that the Appropriations Committee labored long and hard on this budget we're 30 million bucks short. It's that simple. We're $30 million short. We either find it or we have to cut. I'd like to yield the rest of my time to Senator Beutler if he would care for it.

PRESIDENT: Senator DeCamp, do you wish to speak on the...?

SENATOR BEUTLER: Mr. Speaker.

PRESIDENT: Okay.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Yes. May we have order in the Chamber, please. (Gavel.) Senator Beutler, you've been given Senator DeCamp's time.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, once again I want to suggest to you that we're going to get ourselves into serious trouble if we adopt this amendment. Consider what is happening as a matter of lobby tactics. Okay, let's consider the sequence of events that they're going to attempt to manipulate...(interruption)

PRESIDENT: Senator Beutler, let me ask again for order, please. Conversation is coming up from underneath both balconies, from the rear, all over. (Gavel.) Please, let's have order. Listen to the speaker. Senator Beutler.
