

things may develop that we go late tomorrow night. I hate to say that, but it may be necessary to get things thrashed out. It very much depends on how much you want to get done on your priority bills and whether or not you wish to have veto overrides. But the program is still to get through by next Wednesday night. I think we can do it all right, but we can do it to ourselves to do otherwise. So I urge your cooperation, as much as possible, not to tell you how to vote, or not to tell you not to debate the matters as much as you wish. But if you can keep them succinct, perhaps you will be doing yourself a favor. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: The call of the house is raised. The next bill on the agenda, on Select File, under number seven, Special Order, is LB 717.

CLERK: Mr. President, right before that, if I might, I have an Attorney General's Opinion addressed to Senator DeCamp regarding LB 713. (See pages 2484-85 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT: For the record?

CLERK: Yes sir.

PRESIDENT: LB 717.

CLERK: Mr. President, 717, the first item I have are E & R amendments, Senator.

SENATOR HALL: Mr. President, I would move the E & R amendments be adopted.

PRESIDENT: You've heard the motion to adopt the E & R amendments. All those in favor say aye. Opposed no. Motion carried. The amendments are adopted.

CLERK: Mr. President, the next amendment I have is by Senator Goodrich who is excused until he arrives. The next amendment I have to the bill is by Senators DeCamp and Conway. That amendment is on page 1875 of the Journal.

PRESIDENT: Senator Conway, do you want to handle that, or what? Page 1875 of the Journal.

SENATOR DECAMP: I've got another amendment and I'm going to
