

believe that's what Senator Vickers' amendment does and I strongly support the amendment because it is much more difficult to take it on each program when the agency head can determine themselves where the cuts should be and I'm saying that especially with the universities because I'm sure that they will be able to do it in a better form if they have the intent language in there that that's the way it should be, the agency head or the director should determine where the cuts should be. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Senator Haberman, do you wish to speak on the Vickers amendment?

SENATOR HABERMAN: Mr. President, members of the body, may I ask a question of Senator Vickers, please?

PRESIDENT: Senator Vickers is available.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Senator Vickers, does this include governmental subagencies, too, or government subdivisions, the state aid?

SENATOR VICKERS: Governmental subdivisions such as schools, NRDs and so forth, you mean?

SENATOR HABERMAN: Yes.

SENATOR VICKERS: No.

SENATOR HABERMAN: It doesn't.

SENATOR VICKERS: No, I don't believe it does, no, Senator Haberman.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Well, beings as we haven't had time to look up on your amendment, can you tell me what Agency Number 13 is?

SENATOR VICKERS: Agency Number 13.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Well in your amendment...

PRESIDENT: Department of Education.

SENATOR HABERMAN: In your amendment on page 2458 you are listing a group that it shall not apply to and I'm trying to
