

did they say Nordic? What was that word they used that indicated nonblack? Anyway, my skull couldn't comprehend, it couldn't absorb that. It was too deep, too heavy for me and I agree. Because if what I am watching is Nordic rationality in operation, I certainly cannot conceive of, I cannot understand it. It is beyond me and I must be the only one who doesn't understand because everybody else around here seems to know what is going on. Everybody does. Senator Haberman said he'll help me and his colleagues laugh. I don't know if they mean...that they are laughing because they think he can't help me or that they think he will trick me. I don't know. But at any rate, I have some issues that I think need to be discussed. You can suspend this rule all you want to. You can try to cut off debate here, but there is a path farther down and I'll be there waiting and there are issues that I am going to raise and I'm going to fight them. Pretty soon the Governor is going to get involved and he is going to tell you what he will do. Then some of those who have carried water on one issue are going to run over here and be angry and say, he changed his mind. The Governor is a human being and he is subject to pressure like everybody else, then don't get angry if he changes his mind on something and one of these groups has persuaded him that it ought to retain its exempt status or be given an exempt status. You all know what kind of game we're playing and now I'm playing it with you and this is the role I'm in toward the end of every session and I do enjoy it. And as I have said before when I reach this point...

SPEAKER NICHOL: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...some people will look at those things that they feel mean a great deal to me and fall into that notion of voodoo, that misconceived notion of voodoo that the Aryans have because they don't understand the religion of non-Aryans and say that if I take something that means something to him and stick a pin in it, I'm getting him. No, you're not. You're getting your cookies, but that's about all. I'm still going to be here after that bit of nonsense has been carried out. I have amendments that I have to offer. There are discussions I'm going to make and what I say at these times makes much better reading in the transcripts than what the rest of you all say. You sound like people who don't even remember what you said the day before. I hope that you don't suspend the rule, but I
