

what you would have then. So that I would know what it is we are doing.

SENATOR DECAMP: As I understand it, Senator Chambers, I'm sure Senator Warner can explain it better, but as I understand it you would have the Appropriations Committee cuts and the Beutler amendment would merely be the shell to contain those, the original Beutler amendment would be nothing. Would be like it has been cast out of existence.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So then this is...

SENATOR DECAMP: A non-entity.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: This is the original amendment that would demolish the...

SENATOR DECAMP: This is what we started to try at one-thirty. This is exactly where we were at one-thirty.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So then this is not a compromise?

SENATOR DECAMP: Absolutely not.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: This is replacement.

SENATOR DECAMP: Absolutely.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: We are talking annihilation.

SENATOR DECAMP: Oh absolutely, gutting, destruction, total, the whole works, the end of the world, everything.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Judgment day and Senator Beutler voted to do this. I certainly don't understand what is happening here, so let me correct the record. There won't...

SENATOR DECAMP: Huh?...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...be a 2 percent across the board cut.

SENATOR DECAMP: No.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: There will just be the Appropriations...

SENATOR DECAMP: Just God and Senator Warner left, with that
