

but I do want to progress. I do want people to live up to their agreements. And at this point, unless people are willing to go up there and pull those amendments off and let the bill go, I think we should vote on this bracketing motion in order to cease all this needless debate.

PRESIDENT: The motion is to bracket LB 722 until June 3rd. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. 25 votes necessary to pass this motion to bracket. It is a motion to postpone until a time certain. Please record your vote if you wish to vote on Senator Lamb's motion to bracket LB 722 until June 3rd. Please record your vote. Have you all voted? Senator Lamb, any wishes?

SENATOR LAMB: Call of the house and a roll call vote.

PRESIDENT: Very well. Call of the house has been requested and so the question is, shall the house come under call? All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. Record the vote, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 13 ayes, 1 nay to go under call.

PRESIDENT: The motion carries and the house is under call. Members now look up to the board and put on your presence light, please. Put on your green light. All members outside the Chamber, return to the Chamber, the house is under call. Members are required to be in your seats during the time the house is under call. Senator Haberman, green light, please. Senator Richard Peterson, Senator DeCamp, Senator Sieck, Senator Lynch, Senator Higgins, Senator Chambers, Senator Hartnett. Senator Sieck. Senator Hannibal, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR HANNIBAL: A point of clarification, Mr. President. I wanted to make sure I got this down. Senator Lamb said, I didn't use the rules on 662. I didn't use the rules as good as I could have used the rules, if I had used the rules, but I didn't use the rules. Is that what Senator Lamb said?

PRESIDENT: Oh, something like that. Senator Rogers and Senator Sieck, the house is under call, please return to the Chamber. Two members are excused at the present time, or one...two members. Who else? Senator Sieck. Senator Sieck is still missing. We are awaiting the arrival of Senator Sieck. A request has been made for a roll call vote on this
