

possibility of any changes. That is exactly what I am attempting to do. I make no secret of it. Tuesday it becomes too late to put any additional amendments. Tuesday is also the earliest it can be read on Final Reading so it gets locked in its present form. So, yes, in answer to your question or suspicion, I am trying to do precisely what you do not want me to do. I am trying to prevent you from getting any additional amendments. I am trying to lock the bill in its present form. I think that is a good idea. You, obviously, think otherwise. But, yes, that is what I am trying.

SENATOR HALL: Could you answer a question for me? Being new to this process, if someone were to say move to adjourn this afternoon before your motion was brought up...

SENATOR DECAMP: That was my other plot. It accomplishes almost the same thing but not exactly.

SENATOR HALL: I hope that doesn't mean that we think alike. I am just kidding, John. I would urge...

SENATOR DECAMP: You're okay, Hall, you're okay.

SENATOR HALL: I would urge the body to oppose the DeCamp bracket motion.

PRESIDENT: Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman and members of the Legislature, when Senator DeCamp is working for the bankers as he frequently does, he is able to get any amendment that he is interested in trying to have debated, not only debated but added to the bill. Now he is tired. Now he might feel that certain people are in boxes or agencies that he never liked in the first place will be destroyed forever. So he is making the motion which he has the right to do but we also have not only the right but the responsibility to reject his motion. Those amendments are up there. The people who are still here have labored as long on this bill and harder than Senator DeCamp because he has had the lobby helping him. That's why he always goes out there back and forth talking. I was going to get a reconsideration motion on one of his till he went out there and Ryan and some of these other people got cold feet and backed off of it and said, we don't want it now, we don't want it now. He is
