

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Nothing.

PRESIDENT: We'll go to the next bill, which just happens to be 713. Senator Haberman, what do you want?

SENATOR HABERMAN: I have a motion up to adjourn until nine o'clock tomorrow morning.

PRESIDENT: Very well. Senator Haberman has filed a motion to adjourn until tomorrow morning at nine o'clock. The motion is not debatable. All those in favor of adjourning vote aye, opposed vote no. Have you all voted? Have you all voted? Record the vote, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 11 ayes, 24 nays on Senator Haberman's motion to adjourn, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The motion fails. We are back to LB 713.

SPEAKER NICHOL PRESIDING

SPEAKER NICHOL: Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Senator Pappas, you have the first motion on 713, Senator.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Pappas. Yes.

CLERK: Next motion is by Senator Hefner.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Hefner, please.

SENATOR HEFNER: Mr. Clerk, which one is that? Is that the amendment to the video lottery deal?

CLERK: I don't remember which one. Was that AM1579, Senator? Do you know? I don't have that with me because that was withdrawn. All right, yes, it was.

SENATOR HEFNER: I'll withdraw that.

CLERK: All right. Senator Hefner, your second one, same thing.

SENATOR HEFNER: Withdraw that one.
