

government, the Senate and the House, met with the FDIC and said put up the four point some billion dollars for Continental Illinois, they knew what would happen if we didn't. I have talked to many bankers, particularly small country bankers. I'm not worried about ONB and I'm not worried about First of Omaha, or First of Lincoln or NBC, they are going to survive. You know who is going to go down? The country banks are going to go down. They are going to go down one by one, not four at a time we hope. Because they are doing business with farmers and farmers are not making any money and when that happens they have got to be going broke. So the point I want to make is this. Today it is Commonwealth people in the barrel so to speak, next week it is going to be someone else. Last week it was...earlier this week it was Senator Johnson's but unless something is done more substantial than what you are talking about...

PRESIDENT: Time is expiring.

SENATOR SCHMIT: ...you are not going to be doing anyone any good.

PRESIDENT: Senator Hoagland, Senator Morehead is next and then Senator Lynch. Senator Hoagland.

SENATOR HOAGLAND: Question.

PRESIDENT: The question has been called. Do I see five seconds? I do. The question is shall the debate cease. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. Motion is to cease debate. Please record your vote. You have been debating the Johnson-DeCamp amendment and the motion is now to cease debate. Have you all voted? Record the vote, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 28 ayes, 0 nays to cease debate, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The motion carries, Senator Johnson.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Mr. Speaker and members of the Legislature, I have heard Senator Beutler indicate and Senator Sieck indicate that they are going to vote against this amendment because this amendment does not go far enough and it is a sell out of the Commonwealth depositors. I can guarantee you in the end that if this amendment is defeated
