LB 127

this position. I'm opposed to the reconsideration motion. I will be opposed to striking this amendment.

PRESIDENT: Senator Vard Johnson.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Mr. Speaker, I want to rise and make two quick points. Number one, I certainly support Senator DeCamp's meritorious attempt to strike this amendment so that he can then have this bill advanced in clean form. Number two, after this bill advances in clean form, when somebody files that motion to adjourn, which of course is not debatable, I would hope that folk would have enough presence of mind to vote against it, at least until LB 713 has been reported back so it can be read finally, so it can be read finally. Now a recess is one thing, but an adjournment is something else again. I just wanted to call that to your attention.

PRESIDENT: Senator Conway.

SENATOR CONWAY: I was calling the question.

PRESIDENT: Senator Hoagland, did you have anything to say, or are you...

SENATOR HOAGLAND: (Response inaudible.)

PRESIDENT: I think we don't need to vote on ceasing debate. We've reached the end of the speaking line. Senator DeCamp, do you want to close?

SENATOR DECAMP: Just to say if we vote to reconsider then the only thing would be for Senator Pappas to withdraw the amendment and advance the bill. I would hope you would do that.

PRESIDENT: The motion is the adoption of the DeCamp amendment which would strike the Pappas amendment to LB 127. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. We're voting on the DeCamp amendment which strikes the Pappas...voting on the DeCamp motion to reconsider. Sorry. You are voting on Senator DeCamp's motion to reconsider the adoption of the Senator Pappas amendment. Please record your vote so we can hum along. Record the vote, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 27 ayes, 7 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of
