

June 4, 1985

SPEAKER NICHOL: We have some bills that are scheduled to be read on the 6th of May, 5th of May...5th of June, excuse me, and we are reading those today instead of tomorrow.

SENATOR SCHMIT: I see.

SPEAKER NICHOL: And we have to suspend the rules for that.

SENATOR SCHMIT: But are those...these are the bills that are 154 and through...were they not supposed to be read today?

SPEAKER NICHOL: If you will look at your schedule starting with bill 87...

SENATOR SCHMIT: Yes.

SPEAKER NICHOL: ...from those on down through 728, those are the ones that need to have the rules suspended. The rest of them would not need to have the rules suspended, but that particular group do need to have the rules suspended.

SENATOR SCHMIT: I see. Well, thank you, Mr. Speaker, they just were not so identified and so I was curious, I guess, as to why the need for the suspension.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Yes.

SENATOR SCHMIT: Thank you.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Mm hmm. You are voting on the suspension of the rules. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 30 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on the suspension of the rule.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Thank you for suspending the rules. Now please return to your desks so that we can begin Final Reading. Please return to your desks so we can begin Final Reading. And if you are interested, we could be through with Final Reading about noon. That's possible. And, of course, you all know, I am sure, that anything amended today is out the window. So unless you are really serious about amending something, it practically amounts to killing the bill if you are successful in amending it today. So with that, we will begin Final Reading as soon as you all get to
