

years when we were free spending and we had lots of money and it didn't matter, or people thought it didn't matter, and that effect was this, Governor vetoes, Legislature overrides. It doesn't matter whether it is a dime or a million dollars, you seem to get the same effect from the press and that is egg on your face. You made your cuts in the toughest budget session this Legislature has experienced for sure in the last 20 or 30 years. You held firm on 24 and 25 and 26 votes repeatedly. Don't destroy it all now. So I would ask you not to override this veto. Yes, I feel for the people that want this particular project, but this isn't the place to, in a sense, ruin about 90 days of hard work all on one moment of mischief or personal greed for one particular project. Please don't override the veto.

SENATOR LABEDZ: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, and, Senator DeCamp, I have a bone to pick with you and I hope you are listening. You said the Governor treated us all like gentlemen.

SENATOR DECAMP: Senator Labeledz, you weren't listening. I said...

SENATOR LABEDZ: And you were right. I was listening...

SENATOR DECAMP: I said gentlemen and gentlewomen, but it was real quick on the gentlewomen (interruption).

SENATOR LABEDZ: No wonder I didn't hear that.

SENATOR DECAMP: That is what I was talking about, you.

SENATOR LABEDZ: And isn't it ironic, Senator DeCamp, that he did treat you like gentlemen and he vetoed a lady's bill? I give you time to respond.

SENATOR DECAMP: Like I say, he treated us like gentlemen.

SENATOR LABEDZ: Thank you, Senator DeCamp. I am just joking, of course. It didn't bother me that John DeCamp did say that the Governor treated us like gentlemen. I am very much in support of the override. I did not sponsor the override but I thank Senator Goodrich for doing so because I am not in the habit of putting up motions there to override
