

SPEAKER NICHOL: The question is, shall the bill become law notwithstanding the veto of the Governor? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record vote has been called for. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: (Record vote read. See pages 2725-26 of the Legislative Journal.) 20 ayes, 22 nays, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The motion fails. Senator Carson Rogers, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR ROGERS: A point of personal privilege, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: State your point, please.

SENATOR ROGERS: Mr. President, members of the body, ever since I have been down here this year, it seems like everybody kind of picked on my favorite farm animal. I mean they say hog the corn down, and hog this, and pig this, and there was many, many comments they always referred to swine. There was one particular incident here a couple of months ago that somebody more or less made a nice comment about my favorite animals. Now they were talking about a tax deal I think, if I remember it, and the Senator said, Senator Rogers, I think it was the tax silk purse made out of a sow's ear, and I said, well, what few that I made, I guess we didn't pay any taxes on them but they are a beautiful piece of equipment, and at this time, I would like to present a genuine silk purse made out of a genuine sow's ear to Senator Chambers.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Chambers, I am sure you have a response.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: There are times when a prudent man remains silent and this is one of those times.

SPEAKER NICHOL: We expect to see you using this. Thank you, Senator Rogers. Were there any other overrides, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: No, I have nothing further, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Rules changes.
