and putting it into the Code of Conduct. Now there is some other exemptions in part four. It does not include food, for example, that you receive as a part of an organization's dinner. That is not prohibited, and it doesn't prohibit food from relatives, if they happen to be lobbyists. That is not prohibited. But what is prohibited is accepting food and drink from a lobbyist in a one month period which exceeds $25 in value. In pure logical terms, there is no difference, of course, between a gift of food or a gift of any other item, and yet in the law today we have that illogic in place, that is, we prohibit gifts in excess of $25 in that time period if they are not food items, but if they are food items, we do not prohibit it. So all we are doing is making the logical extension to food and saying that the same type of limitations that we have with regard to all other kinds of gifts we are going to have for food items, and that is the basic thrust of provision four. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Senator Goodrich. Senator Marsh, yes, excuse me, did you want me to make that announcement now?

SENATOR MARSH: No, sir, I think you were holding me over on item four from this morning.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. I do have your name...we will have...thank you, and at this time may I make this announcement.

SENATOR MARSH: Yes.

PRESIDENT: However, at the present time under the speaking order I have Senator Goodrich ahead of you, Senator Marsh, and Senator Marsh has a guest with her today that she had asked me to introduce to all of you. Our guest in the Legislature today is Halina Nowak, a refugee from Poland who is presently living with Senator Shirley Marsh and her husband, Frank Marsh, living here under immigrant status, and we are very happy to have you here with us today. Would you stand and be recognized please. Senator Goodrich.

SENATOR GOODRICH: Mr. President, members of the body, would Senator Chris Beutler yield to a couple of questions please?

PRESIDENT: Senator Beutler is available.
