read into the record some things and then we will adjourn, I think, that's right.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Yes, I understand you don't want to take the vote on it today.

SENATOR LYNCH: No.

SPEAKER NICHOL: This is correct, this is fine.

SENATOR LYNCH: Mr. Chairman, I will for the sake of the body so we can get on it with the way you want to and, in fact, adjourn until tomorrow, with the permission of Senator Hartnett I would close. First of all, Senator Carsten mentioned that if we really are interested, and I have to tell you that we really are, Cal, that is the reason we proposed this legislation. But some of us because of our background have some experience at the county board level, school board level and the system here doesn't work the same as it does back home. I have got to tell you, back home we are very, very comfortable with the way the system works because we do have a better chance to understand. Mr. Chairman, but getting a point of privilege because I appreciate very much since both of us are probably neophytes on the floor we do get advice sometimes directly, indirectly, and while we are even maybe trying to close. If I close today, that means we won't be able to close again tomorrow and make some statements when more people are here. Is that the way it works?

SPEAKER NICHOL: Ordinarily, that is the way it is. Since you...

SENATOR LYNCH: We will take our chance, I guess, since we started.

SPEAKER NICHOL: All right.

SENATOR LYNCH: No, no. I will hold and reserve my closing statements with the permission of the Chair then until tomorrow.

SPEAKER NICHOL: I will think about that, all right. And since you are new, why...Senator Warner.

SENATOR WARNER: I assume...point of information of the
