...for a call of the house.

PRESIDENT: A call of the house has been requested. All those in favor of the house coming under call vote aye, opposed vote nay. We're voting for the house to come under the call or not to come under call. The Clerk will record the vote.

CLERK: 8 ayes, 0 nays to go under call.

PRESIDENT: The house is under call. The house is under call. All members of the Legislature outside the Chamber, please return. You're asked to come back to the Legislative Chamber and record your presence, the house is under call. This is not an interpretation, this is an enforcement of the rule. How do you wish to propose to go on a vote, Senator? Do you want call ins or...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: (Response inaudible.)

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Senator Beutler. Senator Conway. Senator Goll, please return to the Chamber, the house is under call. Senator Lamb. Senator Peterson. Senator Rogers. Senator Goodrich. Senator Hefner. Senator Chambers, Senator Goodrich is the only one not here. Shall we hold out for him?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I want to invoke the existing rule and compel his attendance when in whatever corner of the world he happens to be in.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Now we will really enforce the rule. Senator Goodrich, please report back to the Legislative Chamber. Your presence is not only requested, but demanded. The Sergeant-at-Arms will find out what he can about the...Senator Nichol.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Mr. President, if I may just make a short announcement while we're waiting for the others to come in, we'll be adjourning shortly and probably not be finishing with the rules, but we'll finish with them the first thing Monday morning. As you all know, well, as not all of you know because somebody asked me a little bit ago, we will be closing at noon or shortly thereafter for the rest of the day so some of you can attend the meeting out at the Airport Inn having to do with the food center and so forth. And
