

where it is, and in addition, and I am really concerned about it, in my opinion it is not restricted to one trip, it is not restricted to the field but, as written, will also permit any time during the year if you have the permit to haul anywhere in the state, essentially, but probably not the interstate because there is other limitations. I urge the bill be indefinitely postponed. It is not needed. The potential for damage and cost to all the citizens is far more significant than is recognized or accepted and I would hope you indefinitely postpone it.
