doesn't make any difference if there is one. I would hope we would not reconsider. I think this is an excellent proposal. I think you'll like it once it gets functioning. The actual days of meeting can be adjusted as has been indicated many, many times. But I think there is a rationale that once it is established next year very few, if anyone, will be disappointed with it. I would hope you do not reject what we did Monday.

PRESIDENT: Senator Beutler. Is Senator Beutler available to speak a second time? Senator Beutler, are you within hearing distance of my voice? Thank you, thank you. Senator Morehead, do you wish to speak again? All right. Senator Chronister, do you wish to say something?

SENATOR CHRONISTER: Yes. Mr. Chairman and members, I rise to oppose the motion to reconsider. I want to especially allay the fears of Senator Haberman in stating that the influence of the Exec Board isn't going to be near as much as he suspects because the Committee on Committees will welcome the input, in fact encourage the input of the individual senators when we sit down and start hammering this issue out. It is not going to be a closed corporation in any manner of speaking, we'll welcome the input of everyone, and I encourage you to oppose this motion to reconsider.

PRESIDENT: Senator Hoagland. Senator Pappas.

SENATOR PAPPAS: (Response inaudible.)

PRESIDENT: Question has been called. There are a number of people yet on the list. All those...do I see five hands? I do. The question is, shall the debate cease? All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. Please record your vote. The motion is to cease debate. You are voting on the question of ceasing debate on this issue. Have you all voted? Record the vote, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 28 ayes, 1 nay to cease debate, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The motion carried, the debate is closed. Senator Johnson. Senator DeCamp, all right.

SENATOR DECAMP: Mr. President, I did not make an opening and I tried to listen to the debate. I would now like to
