

January 17, 1986 LB 177, 626

that would deal with that problem because we need to deal with that problem. But I think generally we have to permit searches of cells in a prison, we have to permit observations by guards of one sex or another of activities in the shower. Those things are just part of an institutional setting, and I think with the exception of your concern, the bill is an appropriate one. I think we can work out your concern, so I would ask that we advance it to Select File. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The question is the advancement of the bill. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 28 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to advance the bill.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The bill is advanced. All of the bills from there on down, clear down to 626, are off limits so we jump to 626. Senator Hoagland.

CLERK: Mr. President, 626.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Pardon me. 153, I passed over. Senator Johnson isn't here and has a kill motion on it and so forth. So I thought I didn't want to do that without his being here. Okay, thank you.

CLERK: Mr. President, 626 is a bill introduced by the Judiciary Committee and signed by its members. (Read title.) The bill was read on January 22 of last year, referred to the Judiciary Committee, advanced to General File. There are Judiciary Committee amendments.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Hoagland.

SENATOR HOAGLAND: Let me in a sentence or two, Mr. Speaker and colleagues, describe LB 626. LB 626 is a small bill but it is a very important bill for the people affected. It is a bill that was introduced by the Judiciary Committee and was advanced from the committee on a unanimous vote. Now LB 626 is a refinement of the drunk driving legislation that Speaker Nichol and Senator Haberman and others of us participated in about four years ago, and it is a refinement that allows an employment driving permit in a very limited situation, a very limited situation. In the Judiciary
