

January 17, 1986 LB 584

SENATOR LABEDZ: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. LB 584 is introduced by...

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Labeledz, I'm sorry, but we have run out of time.

SENATOR LABEDZ: You're kidding.

SPEAKER NICHOL: No.

SENATOR LABEDZ: Could I have a point of personal privilege?

SPEAKER NICHOL: Yes.

SENATOR LABEDZ: I've just got to say this.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Yes. State your point.

SENATOR LABEDZ: I'm not talking on the bill, but I introduced the bill mainly for two people on this floor. Senator Higgins, as you know, has six letters in her name...seven letters, I'm sorry, and so we thought about it last year and when she decided she was going to run for governor, we decided that she ought to take her District 9 off her license plate and put "Higgins" on there instead. But the bill...the statutes say we can only have six letters, Higgins has got seven and then Beutler fooled us, he came in, he has got seven letters. So we were doing it for Beutler and Higgins. Senator Nichol, I think you have six names (sic), so you are okay, you can go ahead and put your name on your plates. But I was...the bill actually called for increasing it from six to seven and this is entirely a joke. I didn't do it for Higgins and I didn't do it for Beutler, but it looks like Senator Higgins is going to have to take her license plate and keep it with District 9. I doubt if this will be heard again.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Thank you.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Point of personal privilege.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Higgins.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Senator Labeledz. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.
