

SPEAKER NICHOL: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I cannot say that there has been a breakdown in law and order because people haven't answered traffic tickets. Nobody has alleged that. They try to give the impression that this is a serious societal problem. It might be an inconvenient law enforcement problem, but it is not leading to wreck and ruin, it is not breaking up families, it is not doing any of the terrible things that people who plead for law and order usually can show will happen if you don't put the program they have in mind in place. So I hope you will vote to indefinitely postpone this bill and the society in question, which is that of Nebraska will not be harmed by your voting to kill it.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The question is the kill motion. All those in favor of the kill motion vote aye, opposed nay. A simple majority. A record vote has been asked for. Have you all voted that care to? Have you all voted? You are voting on the kill motion. A record vote has been asked for. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: (Read record vote as found on page 426 of the Legislative Journal.) 10 ayes, 24 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to indefinitely postpone.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The motion fails. Do you have anything else on the bill?

CLERK: I have amendments that are pending from Senator Hefner that were printed last year.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Is Senator Hefner here? Any other amendments other than Senator Hefner's amendment?

CLERK: Nothing further on the bill, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Vard Johnson, what do you wish to do with your bill?

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: I would move the advancement of the bill, if I might. I hope that I have adequately explained this bill. There are obviously ten people who had some misgivings or doubts about the measure. This particular measure is in force today in Nebraska with respect to those
